TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Brandofino Communications Inc, Syosset, NY, publishes a bi-monthly journal, circulating to approximately 100,000 physicians based on the American Medical Associations (AMA) Master-file database. As an AMA Database Licensee, Cegedim Dendrite provides the circulation file utilized for this publication, titled "Doctor's Digest", which began circulating in February 2005. The journal audience is derived by selecting "Primary Care Physicians"; FM;FP;GP;IM along with Cardiovascular Disease (CD), who are ranked as HVP's (High Volume Prescribers), based on our proprietary Rx Database using 10 different therapeutic classes.

Brandofino Communications also began publishing in February 2006, a physician journal serving the Oncology marketplace of approximately 17,000 specialists. Cegedim Dendrite provides this circulation file as well.

Brandofino Communications Inc., has been a customer of Cegedim Dendrite since September 2004 to present. We consider them an excellent account both in attention to detail and timeliness of payments.

Sincerely,
